He started his career as the physical education teacher at Orrville Middle School Dan did not have anything to share with the coalition, and said he was attending the meeting to learn more about the community organizations that help the students he works with. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Staff reminded members that they can invite speakers to meetings and ask staff to put them on the agenda.
Marketing/Events	Summer Reading Program Kickoff Event Report Community Kickball – July 29th Library Tailgate – September 22nd	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 70 people came by the TPC/RAPA information table during the event on Saturday. Staff asked members to begin thinking about what they would like to have at the table this year. Chief Birkbeck suggested that the coalition sponsor a youth kickball team, but after some group discussion it was decided that it should be a goal for next year because we are too close to the event to put together a team now. The library tailgate will be on the same night as youth night at the game which should allow us to reach more youth this year. Lisa reported that Audrey Zuercher approved throwing mini footballs during the game. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The footballs will be red and will have a school spirit message (ex. Go Red Riders) and the RAPA logo. Staff will order the footballs.

Some of the ideas include partnering with the video production team on making PSA's, extending outreach in the middle school and possibly the elementary school, peer to peer partnerships, and updating the middle school presentations. Chief Birkbeck asked if TPC provides a scholarship, and Lisa said they normally provide a graduation gift to RAPA seniors. 	school clubs with descriptions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The graduation gift this year was Best Buy gift cards.
Other Business	Youth Intervention Program (YIP) DARE Training Sign Coalition Involvement Agreements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There was a group discussion about vaping and the harm it poses to youth which led to an update on the Youth Intervention Program (YIP) from Chief Birkbeck. Chief Birkbeck started by summarizing YIP for Dan Steidl and explained that the program is seeking to have a tailored intervention for small offenses so less children go through juvenile court. Lisa asked Chief Birkbeck if any officers needed DARE training, and he said he has one officer he would like to send for training. Chief Birkbeck said there is no possibility of officers receiving DARE training over the summer due to other training requirements, and that the soonest an officer could be trained is this coming fall. Chief Birkbeck currently has one officer trained in DARE already, but his training was in middle school curriculum. Chief Birkbeck also reported that every school will have an SRO next year. Chief Birkbeck signed his Coalition Involvement Agreement. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Catholic Charities and Wayne County Courts have been instrumental in developing this program, and Chief Birkbeck is currently looking for opportunities and community partners who are available to expand the scope of this program. Chief Birkbeck said OPD will have training funds available to send officers for DARE training, but the issue is finding the time for them to go. Lisa will follow-up with Chief Birkbeck about whether that officer can provide DARE training at the elementary school as well as the middle school.
